Herb K. reported that Algonac High School is reserved. He left a message for the Chief of Police in Algonac. There has been a change in personal at St. John River District Hospital. He contacted Carl Preston for the DJ and needs the contract signed and a deposit. He will be renting more tables this year from St. Clair Packaging. He has requested tents again from the Boy Scouts. He may need to get one additional tent from St. Clair Packaging. He has called about porta potties. Lighthouse Park will be used and he still needs to make sue the rest rooms will be opened and he has the key to the water spigot.

Mark C. and Karen M. ordered new signs. A couple more are needed.

Linda M. said that the students have their own tables for massages. She agreed to feed the students. The instructor must be paid. There was some discussion about where the tables should be placed, inside or outside.

Ve K. brought in a sample windbreaker. There is a zipper on the side for accessing the back pocket of your jersey and it is made of water repellent material. The price will be $XXXXX. Short sleeve jerseys will be $XXXXX. She now has orders for 4 windbreakers, 6 short sleeved jerseys, and 4 sleeveless jerseys. A minimum order of 15 must be met. She is expecting to place an order by the end of the week. She needs the money and it is expected that delivery will be in 5-7 weeks. The money can be given to Linda M. or paid on line with Pay Pal. If the minimum order number of 15 cannot be met, she will contact another company.

New Business

Concern was raised about getting ride emails, especially for new members. Craig will follow up by sending a new email.

Linda M. brought up the issue of renewing the insurance policy and adding terrorism risk insurance. She will look into the amount of the added premium and bring the information back to the board.

Jim H. discussed trauma care in emergency situations. He included information on head injuries, neck injuries, and cardiac care. We were also encouraged to report any problems and never let anyone ride alone.

A motion was made to close the meeting at 8:26pm by Mark C. and seconded by Less O. The motion was accepted.

Thanks Kim P. and Nolan P. for the pink and blue treats in honor of baby Plesco!!
