RIDES & TRAINING:

- Les mentioned that the Maumee Area River Ride was good, and mentioned the Lake Erie Fall Ride that was on Saturday, September 18. He informed us, too, of Sandro's return on October 3.
- Bruce F. referenced the World Naked Bike Ride that was in Philadelphia.
- Herb K. highlighted the Pere-Marquette ride. He was impressed with the nice trail. Comments included beautiful, wide, smooth, clean & flat.
- Richard discussed the Trail Mix Randonneur ride, and Craig added that the wind was "crazy."
- Craig stated that the Labor Day ride was nice.

Upcoming:

- The AAA brevet is this upcoming Saturday...out & back

OLD BUSINESS:

Various:

- Benches are still on hold...waiting for the township
- Purchases from online store one at a time will include an additional charge. (Various items were highlighted with examples (e.g. Bib shorts $105 with minimum order of (5) vs. $130 for individual)
- Re: Primal...Jays get price (??) – sent them graphics for front and back...will send info in email

NEW BUSINESS:

Various:

- Moving the October 11 CRR meeting to October 18 to allow 3 weeks between meeting times.
- TCF merged with Huntington – Is there anything we need to do? Linda wants to go in to talk...to meet at Huntington. We are able to use our old check supply until they run out.
- Brian Carl: Cycling Without Age provides rides for seniors. It is in 50+ countries. There are 100+ in the United States. A few in Michigan. The organization needs help...fund raising. See the organization's Facebook page. Fran & Herb K contributed to the discussion. The group gets shutins out on bikes for recreation. Check out cyclingwithoutage.org. Brian Carl is the president. The CWA Rochester phone # is 248-963-0011.
- Herb K inquired about Jerry P.
- Craig will send email on shirt and send all primal info.
- We will check with the bank to provide info for the next meeting

Wrap up:

Motion to adjourn meeting...all agreed. Meeting adjourned at 7:53 pm.
