RIDES, TRAINING & RIDE DIRECTOR:

- Duane noted that his Tuesday ride was been hindered by weather a lot in November.
- Les Dunham has been continuing his Grosse Pointe to Detroit/Mt. Clemens rides as the weather allows.
- Bruce Freeburger participated in The Detroit Speedo Run in downtown Detroit.
- Joe mentioned that Macomb Bike would be holding their annual New Years Eve Ride. Joe will lead a group out from the bike shop to Eastern Market for the ride if weather permits.
- Bruce described some Cross County ski locations and possibly adding some to our ride calendar.

OLD BUSINESS:

- Kim mentioned that The Pollyann Trail posted a Thank you to us on their website.
- We donated to Harsen's Island but they have yet to cash the check. We will most likely wait until spring for photo opportunity that they offered.

- Judee Clause provided an update on the Big Family charity. They were able to obtain 31 bikes and helmets with the help of 2 local Kiwanis groups and Tim from Tim's Bike Shop. They also were able to provide gifts for 1500 kids.

NEW BUSINESS:

- BWR: Once the date is confirmed with the school, we can work on Registration.
- Bruce Freeburger suggested that we donate money to the Velodrome to have a poster of Doris Mulligan designed and mounted there. This would include a photo of her and list of achievements. The approximate price is $500.00. Bruce will contact the Moormans and the Linhursts.
Motion to form a Committee for the poster was accepted by Sandy Studebaker 2ndd by Jeri Grigg.
- Joe mentioned that the Madison Races were the upcoming weekend and a discussion of the race style followed.
- Bruce mentioned that if you are 62 or older, you can use the walking track at the Velodrome for free.
- Spring Banquet was discussed briefly. We agreed to have it at Aspen Restaurant on a Thursday in March. Last year it was held on March 14th. Fran volunteered to contact Aspen once we have a tentative date chosen.
- Fran proposed that we increase the Meeting Snack budget from $40.00 to $50.00.
Motion to accept by Nino Pacini and 2ndd by Dave Claus.
