Let's Ride!

Celebrate Detroit 300! Ride downtown to see the Tall Ships, July 22

Saturday, July 22, Bill and Julie Windhorst will lead a ride celebrating Detroit's 300th Birthday – from Macomb Mall, Gratiot and Masonic, to downtown Detroit to see the historic 'Tall Ships' flotilla on the Detroit River. The ride will begin at 9:00 a.m., with a stop for breakfast at either Greektown or Eastern Market; estimated return time is noon-1:00 p.m., from a location to be determined once the group is downtown. Expect a round-trip of about 40 miles, at a pace of about 16 miles per hour.

Ride and Camp August 11-17

Bob George is planning a week-long self-contained camping trip through southeast Michigan, southern Ontario and northern Ohio, Aug. 11-17. If you're interested in joining him, call him for full details: 810-463-6058.

"Blues Ride II" Algonac to Harsen's Island to hear Bluecat, July 28

Saturday, July 28, Will Lajack will again lead a group ride from Algonac State Park to Harsen's Island – specifically to Brown's Landing, to hear the Bluecat Band featuring CRR member Duane Larkin on bass. The ride will leave the park at 4:00 p.m., and will include a comfortably-paced ride around Harsen's Island as well as the dinner-and-blues stop at Brown's. For details and/or directions, contact Will at 810-758-1144.

Ride & Barbeque Windhorsts will host on July 29

Bill and Julie Windhorst will host their annual Barbeque Ride on Sunday, July 29. The festivities begin at their home at 9:00 a.m., when they'll depart to lead a ride of about 40 miles at a pace of 16-17 miles per hour. Following the ride, the afternoon will be devoted to a festive potluck barbeque back at the Windhorst home – bring a dish to pass, plus your own alcoholic beverages if desired. Please give Bill and Julie a call to RSVP: 810-939-6073.

Contact BWR chair Diane Baker to volunteer, or for more information: 810-739-0261

The Prez Sez ...

Thank you to all the Clinton River Riders who volunteered to ride and represent us in the MS150, July 14-15!

Our 2001 Club Roster and new Email Roster are included in this newsletter. If you see an error in your listing, please report it to Sandy Overway, who maintains the roster for the club.

It is not too early to volunteer for the BWR! It makes it easier for committee heads to organize if they know who is working for them. We need 100+ volunteers for the 1st Sunday in October (the 7th). As you know this is our main fundraiser for the year and it is important that we have enough help. Contact Diane Baker to volunteer: 810-739-0261. Thank you.

Cookin' with the Clinton River Riders Club cookbook under construction

All those great recipes we share at potlucks throughout the year will soon be available at our fingertips, in a brand new Clinton River Riders cookbook.

Jerry Pavlat has agreed to coordinate gathering our recipes and compiling them into a booklet. So take a moment to submit your favorites, and they'll be included. Whether it's a summery salad, a savory main dish or side, a soul-satisfying dessert - or even one of each - this cookbook will hopefully include a little bit of everything.

Take a few minutes to type up your favorite 'dish to pass' recipe, and mail it to CRR COOKBOOK, 6383 Eley Drive, Troy MI 48098, or send it to Jerry via email at tandemdepo@aol.com
